CASE SUMMARY

In the Statement of Claim, Claimant asserted the following causes of action: violations of FINRA Rule 2111 - unsuitability of event contracts; reasonable-basis suitability; customer-specific suitability; quantitative suitability; platform-level interference and undisclosed "collaring"; unsuitability given Claimant's investor profile; and retaliatory downgrade and failure to monitor suitability. The causes of action relate to Claimant's purchase of 25,506 "YES NYK" event contracts through Respondents' event markets platform.

Unless specifically admitted in the Statement of Answer, Respondents Robinhood Financial, LLC and Robinhood Securities, LLC denied the allegations made in the Statement of Claim and asserted various affirmative defenses.

RELIEF REQUESTED

In the Statement of Claim, Claimant requested total damages of $27,877.27, plus interest and equitable relief, as follows: compensatory damages of $19,277.27, representing the fully realized loss incurred; contingent capital loss of $8,000.00, representing funds withdrawn on May 22, 2025, that would have otherwise remained invested; reimbursement of forum and filing fees totaling $600.00; pre and post-judgment interest accruing from May 21, 2025, to the date of the award; expungement of any data or internal profile approvals related to event contract trading from Claimant's investor record; and any other relief the Arbitrator deemed just and proper.

OTHER ISSUES CONSIDERED AND DECIDED

The Arbitrator acknowledges having read the pleadings and other materials filed by the parties.

Respondents Robinhood Financial, LLC and Robinhood Securities, LLC did not file properly executed Submission Agreements but are required to submit to arbitration pursuant to the Code and, having answered the claim, are bound by the determination of the Arbitrator on all issues submitted.

On November 4, 2025, Respondents Robinhood Financial, LLC and Robinhood Securities, LLC filed a Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Rule 12504 of the Code in which Respondents claim, among other things, that the event contracts purchased were all offered through Robinhood Derivatives, an entity that is not a FINRA member and not a respondent in this action. On November 4, 2025, Claimant filed a Response to Respondents' Motion to Dismiss, in which Claimant contends, among other things, that the losses were caused by the platform interface of Respondent Robinhood Financial, LLC. Having reviewed the parties' submissions, the Arbitrator has denied Respondents' Motion to Dismiss.
